

What is in Your Cat's Kibble?

Better Foods

"The Worst" Foods

Protein

Source
Range

Meat or Meal
Preferably 36% or higher

Soy, Glutens, Brewers Rice, Rice Bran
28%-30%

Fat

Source
Range

One Source (example: Chicken Fat)
15%-20%

Generic (example: Animal Fat)
Lower than 15%

Grains

- Small Amounts
- Prefer to see potato or corn instead of rice
- No more than 2 different grains used

- Large Amounts
- Rice as second and/or third ingredient(s)
- More than 2 different grains used

Omega 6:3 Ratio
Vitamin Pack
Probiotics
Preservatives
Flavoring
Coloring
Stool Volume
Amount Fed

5:1 or lower
Proteinated or Sequestered
Yes
Natural
Natural
None Added
Less
Ideally Less

10:1 ratio or higher
Oxides
No
Synthetic Artificial
Color Added
More
More

"The Best" Food for cats is a strictly raw meat diet, which cannot be manufactured in kibble form.

For help choosing the right food for your pet, visit us at: 1645 Martin Lane (off Gregory Lane) or call 733-5355.